AAO Lifetime Achievement Award in Orthodontic Research Lecture – (Due to AAO March 31)

This annual award is intended to recognize those individuals who have made significant contributions to the science related to the specialty of orthodontics over the course of their lifetime.

The criteria for consideration include the following:

1. Nominee has made significant contributions to the science related to the specialty of orthodontics through research.
2. Nominee has made significant contributions of original, outstanding, or innovative discoveries in orthodontic research across his or her lifetime.
3. Nominee has established a legacy of research and discovery that is inspiring to members of the academic community.
4. Nominee has produced information that is useful, or potentially useful, in advancing the clinical practice of orthodontics.
5. Nominee does not have to be an orthodontist.
6. AAO members may nominate individuals from the United States or any other country.

The AAO Board of Trustees will consider these nominations and determine the award recipient on an annual basis. Award winners will be invited to make a presentation at the following year's AAO Annual Session during the Doctors' program. The award will be presented at the beginning of the lecture, and the recipient of the next year's award will be announced at the conclusion of the lecture.

AAO Outstanding Contribution Award by a Non-Orthodontist– (Due to AAO March 31)

This AAO award recognizes outstanding service to the specialty of orthodontics made by a non-orthodontist. The Award Committee is composed of the eight most recent past presidents, each representing one of the eight constituent organizations. Nominations may come from the following sources: Each constituent organization or WFO-affiliated organization may submit one nomination per year; Any group of five or more American Association of Orthodontists' members may submit a nomination.

Award guidelines:

- The letter of nomination is to include a description of the particular achievements of the nominee, a brief background statement supporting the nomination along with appropriate credentials and curriculum vitae.
- Each organization shall determine how its nominee is to be selected and need not limit itself to choosing only from its own membership.
- Any non-orthodontist who has rendered distinguished service to the American Association of Orthodontists and to the specialty of orthodontics may be nominated. The person must be a non-orthodontist, and may come from an allied health field, from the corporate environment or be a private individual.
- All nominations must remain confidential. Any announcement, disclosure or campaign on behalf of a nominee may disqualify that candidate for the year in which he or she is nominated.

A monetary award of $1,500 will be given to the recipient. In addition, recipients receive Round trip economy airfare for two plus ground transportation between home/hotel/airports; Three nights room at an AAO designated leadership hotel (direct billed to AAO); a $75 per diem for three days to cover meals and incidental expenses; Two tickets to the VIP section for Opening Ceremonies at Annual Session; Six complimentary tickets to the Excellence in Orthodontics Luncheon at the Annual Session.

ADA AWARDS:

ADA Norton M. Ross Award for Excellence in Clinical Research – (Due to AAO by February 1)

This award was established to recognize investigators whose clinical research has had a meaningful impact on some aspect of clinical dentistry. This award recognizes individuals who have made significant contributions in clinical investigations that have advanced the diagnosis, treatment and/or prevention of craniofacial-oral-dental diseases, as well as outstanding research endeavors in other areas. Previous award winners represent a diversity of disciplines, including dental materials, oral medicine, oral pathology, orofacial pain and periodontics. The award is sponsored by the ADA and honors the memory of Dr. Norton M. Ross, a dentist and pharmacologist who contributed significantly to the fields of oral medicine and dental clinical research. The award recipient will receive a $5,000 honorarium and a plaque.

Concise letters of nomination describing the nominee's accomplishments in the context of the award's objectives, along with the nominee's curriculum vitae and a list of publications should be submitted. The letter should be explicit in describing the impact of the nominee's research in clinical dentistry. Selection is based upon the scope of the nominee's research with special emphasis on its impact on clinical dentistry and on publications in refereed journals.
